Spirit of the Tournament: This tournament has been organized to promote healthy competition among players of the game of soccer. It is genuinely hoped that all participants, including players, coaches and spectators, will join in the positive support for the referees, tournament officials, vendors and parent volunteers. Coaches are reminded that they are responsible for their own behavior, as well as the behavior of their players and spectators. Tournament officials reserve the right to disqualify any team from the tournament due to the gross misconduct of its coaches, players or spectators.

This tournament is sanctioned by the Connecticut Junior Soccer Association (CJSA). All tournament games will be played in accordance with the Laws of the Game as issued by FIFA/USSF, except where provided below.

Once accepted as a participant in this tournament, each team's club, players, coaches, managers and spectators acknowledge and accept these Rules & Regulations and hereby agree to comply with the terms listed herein.

Tournament officials reserve the right to decide all matters pertaining to the tournament and any judgments shall be final and binding.

- B. However, the Tournament Committee reserves the right to reduce the number of games scheduled, combine age brackets, and/or schedule teams from the same Club to play each other as the situation dictates. These circumstances may include weather-related changes, the number of teams registered for each age group, last minute withdrawals, and any other event that may arise.
- C. Head coaches who coach multiple participating teams must make arrangements for game coverage should teams be scheduled to play at the same time. Due to the number of teams registered and the complexity of schedule creation, the Tournament Committee cannot guarantee that coaches will not be "double-booked". jerseys available for players. All teams should bring pinnies as a last resort in case they are needed.
